ADVICE OF PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS

The commission of any offense while on pretrial release may result in an additional sentence upon conviction for such offense to a term of imprisonment of not more than ten years if the offense is a felony or a term of imprisonment of not more than one year if the offense is a misdemeanor. This sentence shall be consecutive to any other term of imprisonment.

Title 18 U.S.C. §1503 makes it a criminal offense punishable by imprisonment for life or by death, or, depending upon the specific provisions of the section not more than twenty years or by not more than ten years, and a $250,000 fine to intimidate a juror or officer of the court; Title 18 U.S.C. §1510 makes it a criminal offense punishable by up to five years imprisonment and a $250,000 fine to obstruct a criminal investigation; Title 18 U.S.C. §1512 makes it a criminal offense punishable by imprisonment for life or by death, or, depending upon the specific provisions of the section by not more than twenty years or by not more than ten years and a $250,000 fine for tampering with a witness, victim or informant; or by intentionally harassing another person and thereby hindering /delaying /preventing or dissuading any person from attending or testifying in an official proceeding or otherwise violating the section is punishable by imprisonment for not more than one year and a $250,000 fine; and 18 U.S.C. §1513 makes it a criminal offense punishable by imprisonment for life or by death, or, depending upon the specific provisions of the section not more than twenty years or by not more than ten years of imprisonment, a fine of $250,000, or both, to retaliate against a witness, victim or informant, or threaten or attempt to do so.

It is a criminal offense under 18 U.S.C. §3146, if after having been released, the Defendant knowingly fails to appear as required by the conditions of release, or to surrender for the service of sentence pursuant to a court order. If the Defendant was released in connection with a charge of, or while awaiting sentence, surrender for the service of a sentence, or appeal or certiorari after conviction, for: (1) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment, or imprisonment for a term of fifteen years or more, the Defendant shall be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than ten years, or both; (2) an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of five years or more, the Defendant shall be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years or both; (3) any other felony, the Defendant shall be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned not more than two years, or both; (4) a misdemeanor, the Defendant shall be fined not more than $100,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

A term of imprisonment imposed for failure to appear or surrender shall be consecutive to the sentence of imprisonment for any other offense. In addition, a failure to appear may result in the forfeiture of any bail posted.

If the person was released for appearance as a material witness, a fine as provided by law or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.
